"The heart of this nation is sound,
the spirit of this nation is strong,
the faith of this nation is eternal."

Franklin D. Roosevelt

Introduction

What is freedom? Freedom is an elusive thing and must be guarded diligently. It can not be put into a box, locked, and forgotten. It can not be taken for granted. Only through eternal vigilance can we protect our precious heritage—freedom.

SOUTHERN HIGH SCHOOL
1915

Every man is free to achieve as much as he can

Governor Theodore R. McKeldin

Dedication

This book is dedicated to Governor Theodore R. McKeldin. Through our years at Southern we have seen him hold office first as Mayor of Baltimore and then as Governor of Maryland. We, of the 1953 graduating class, not only look up to him as Governor but also regard him as a friend. As an honorary alumnus of Southern High School, Governor McKeldin has been an inspiring example of how much a man can achieve.

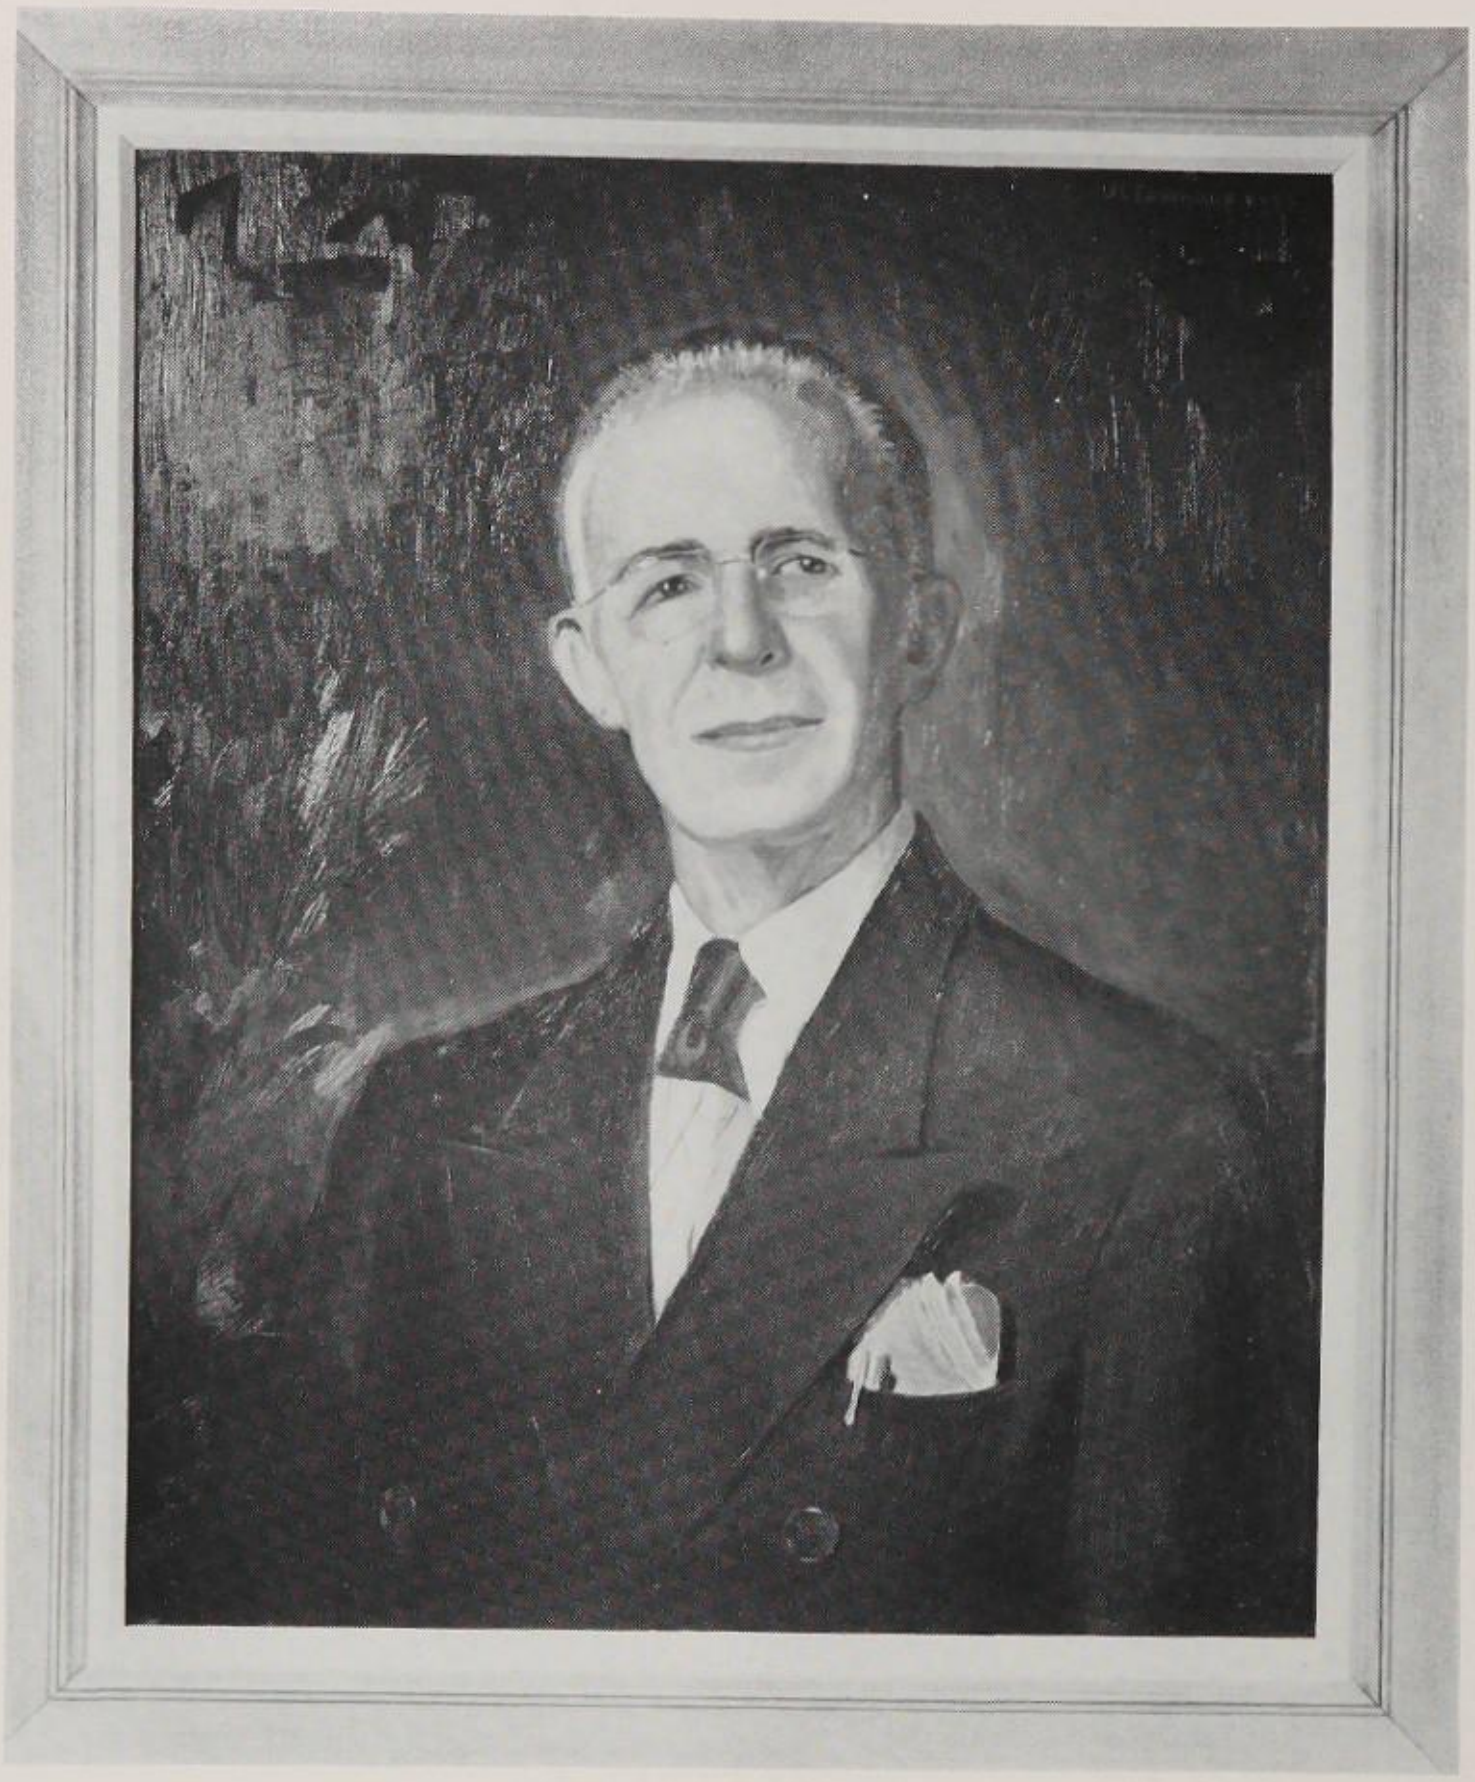
Our Leader in Democracy



Mr. John H. Schwatka
Principal

Gentleman, scholar, friend: throughout our years at Southern it has been proven to us many times that these three words describe perfectly our principal, Mr. John H. Schwatka. Led on by his confidence, we accomplished much. One of these accomplishments was that for two consecutive years, we won national recognition through the presentation of an award to our school from Freedoms Foundation. As the years roll by, whenever we think of Southern, we shall fondly remember our dear friend and confidant, Mr. Schwatka.

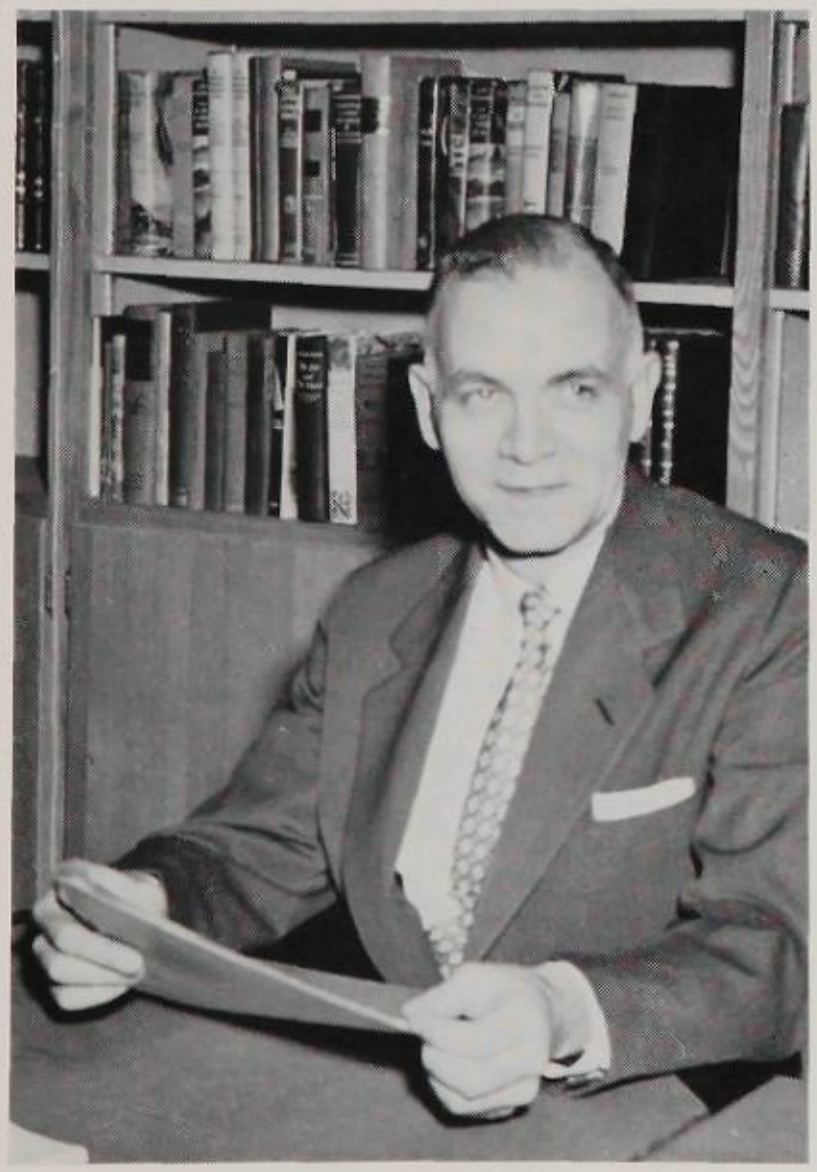
And his capable assistants

MRS. EDITH B. McCLEARY

Vice Principal

Dean of Girls

One of the busiest and most liked persons around our school is our Dean of Girls, Mrs. McCleary. Her main interest is to give friendly and able assistance to students and to help them solve their problems. By her words, her actions, and her charming manners, she has won the respect and admiration of all with whom she has come in contact.



MR. EVERETT S. McCAULEY

Vice Principal

Dean of Boys

As we grow older and older, and the school days get fainter and fainter, we shall always remember the person who led us through many a hard time, Mr. Everett S. McCauley. His natural friendly way has made him a friend to all students who have come to know him. So we take this time to congratulate him and wish him luck throughout the coming years.

Mr. Mearns Fuller
February Advisor

Mr. Mearns Fuller
Mrs. Dorothy Roten
Mr. William Barnett

To you three wonderful people, who have come to mean so much to us these past four years, we send all our love and devotion. We shall never forget you, for in each dear memory of ours, you are included. You shared our happiness and sadness. You shared our triumph after our successful class play, which could never have been a success without your assistance. We sincerely wish for you all the happiness and good luck in the world. May God bless you.

With love,
The Classes of "53"

Cooperation among individuals is vitally important.

MISS JEANETTE GRIFFITH
Senior Counselor

Miss Jeanette Griffith, our senior counselor, has guided us well throughout our high school career. She listened eagerly and sympathetically to our minor as well as our important problems and, last but not least, won our love and unfailing devotion.

MR. CHARLES SCOTT
Senior Counselor

Mr. Charles Scott, the counselor for the June class, has smoothed over many of our rough spots. During our last term, we depended wholly upon his advice. He encouraged us to attend the college of our choice and inspired us to try for scholarships. We offer our thanks and best wishes to a dear friend and counselor.

MR. ANDREW BOHLE
Coordinator

Mr. Andrew Bohle, who is a graduate of Southern, is a man everyone will remember as a friend. Mr. Bohle, who is one of two coordinators in Baltimore, presided here at Southern first as a teacher, second as the Principal at the Annex and of the Southern Evening School, and third as our coordinator. We, the classes of 1953, wish for Mr. Bohle continued success and happiness.

MISS BELLE MALEY
Librarian

Whether we wanted a book for research or pleasure, "our Miss Maley" always seemed to know just what we wanted.

Mr. Joseph Kornblatt

In Memoriam

It was with heartfelt sorrow and deep regret that we received word of the sudden death of our beloved instructor, Mr. Joseph Kornblatt, on February 16, 1953. It is hard to state briefly our feelings toward him, for he had so many good qualities. The very fact that he was addressed as "Uncle Joe" demonstrates our feelings toward him. He was always ready with a smile, bit of humor, word of encouragement, or gentle reprimanding, whichever the occasion called for. Thus, he taught us much more than one can find in textbooks. As long as there is a Southern he will not be forgotten, for he is a part of Southern. We shall always hold close in our hearts the memory of our dear "Uncle Joe".

Dr. William H. Lemmell

We were all shocked and deeply saddened at the passing of Dr. William Hugo Lemmell, on January 29, 1953. He was a good man, courageous, honorable, kind and for all he did, and was, and gave, we are deeply thankful.

FEBRUARY CLASS

SENIOR DAY, graduation, and the prom plus many parties made up our last week in school. We cried because we were leaving, laughed at incidents that had happened in the past, and rejoiced at finally receiving our diplomas. Each of us had served our school well in our own special way. Now we will go out to serve our country in much the same manner. We are proud of our great school, Southern, and we are proud to serve our great country, the United States of America.

Vol. XXVIII, No. 4 — Southern High School, Baltimore, Maryland — January 28, 1951

Senior Day Assembly To Be Held Today

Senior Day for the February Class of 1951 will be observed in the school auditorium at 1:40 P.M. this afternoon.

One hundred and two seniors will open the assembly by marching down the aisles with the girls dressed in the traditional white and the boys in their suits of a more conservative shade.

The Reverend Richard Hively will render the invocation. After the regular opening exercises, the installation of the new officers will be effected. This will consist of the swearing in by Robert Carey, the farewell address by William Myers, and the transferring of the gavel by principal John H. Schwatka. After this, William Myers, president of the February class of 1951, will present the flag to Richard Waings, president of the June class of 1951.

Activities

Following these proceedings, there will be a song rendered by the Senior Class and greetings from Dr. William H. Lemmel, Superintendent of Schools, and a message to the seniors from Mr. John H. Schwatka, principal.

Other Activities

Other items on a full program will consist of the presentation of a gift to the school by William Myers, on the behalf of the graduating class, and the rendering of a song by the newly-formed boys' quartette composed of D. Hamlin, G. Stevenson, E. Johnson, and G. Wilson. This will be followed by a song by the senior class entitled "After Graduation Day" with lyrics written by Shirley Brown, one of the graduates.

The "Alma Mater" song, the salute to the flag, and the benediction by Reverend Hively will end the program, which of course will be climaxed by the recessional march.

Luncheon

During the latter part of the morning the seniors will enjoy a[n] appetizing luncheon. This will include, beside the formal [pro]grams, and Mr. Maurice [Schr]eiber, has invited some[one] the faculty, school staff [and] those to attend if possible.

Seniors L[ead] For Gradu[ation]

The graduating class of February 1951 will host their first dance on the evening of [Feb.] 3rd in the auditorium of [the] school at eight o'clock.

At that time one hundred and two graduates will say adieu to Southern and go out into a world of various vocations or avocations.

Yearbook Staff Working Hard

The yearbook staff is working night and day in order to complete the publication of the 1951 Southerner.

Every morning about 7:45 A.M. if you happen to stroll by room 213 you will find the behives of Southern's 1951 yearbook. The group of students is working silently and swiftly trying to create and publish a yearbook that will stand out more so than past publications.

Directors

Mr. Maurice Fidler, Mrs. Dorothy Rutan, and Mr. William Ba[ker] are ably directing [the] efforts of students.

Counselors' Comments

An item of importance has been issued recently by the counseling department concerning the drafting of senior high school students.

Consider These

Some of the points to observe regarding the annual services are:

1. If [illegible]

Annual Elections Held At Southern

Recently the semi-annual student elections were held at Southern. This term proved to be no exception to others for it was just as lively contested an election as Southerners have ever witnessed.

Elected

Robert Smith was elected President. It seems that most of the students liked his campaign slogan "You Got To Go With Jimmy G." The choice of Southerners for vice-president was Herman Sullivan and we know Herm will fill the spot capably.

Statements

One of the first actions on the part of this reporter was to obtain a statement of policy from the newly-elected president and vice-president, and I quote the president as saying "I will do my best to keep up the good work that the president of the Student Association did last term," and the vice-president as saying "I guarantee that the office of vice-president will be carried out to the best of my ability." Good luck boys, you have a big job ahead of you.

Other Officers

The new chief judge will be Chester Thomas and Carolyn Rose will aid the three as secretary. The associate judges are as follows: 11A — Michael Daly, James Anthony, and Andrew Burgess; 12A — Lawrence Myers, Ellen Snyder and Nancy Sumstrom.

Prior to this election, as in all others, the student body was impressed with the need to vote intelligently and that responsibility not popularity was the keynote. Mr. Maurice Schreiber, adviser to the Students' Association, worked hard and valiantly with the students who ran for office.

Need For Cooperation

You Southerners have made your choice. Now help these officers that you have selected [illegible]

FEBRUARY COURIER STAFF

The February Courier Staff starts out the school year by showing that we have freedom of the press in our school paper. This freedom has a direct carry over into our daily program.

. . . without fear

JUNE COURIER STAFF

The June Courier Staff continues the year by producing more, so that the students may enjoy complete news coverage. This we feel stimulates the urge for more informative citizens in the years to come.

Our Junior Prom finally became a reality.

Junior Prom

"Starlight Serenade"

During intermission there was always room for refreshments.

We danced throughout the night to our theme, "Starlight Serenade".

We received our prom favors.

We learned the real meaning of our rings and the symbols for which they stand.

Ordering our school rings is a privilege almost everyone takes.

We received our rings . . .

and produced our senior play.

Our class play proved to be a big success on our stage.

The 3 act play which took place in a classroom was hilarious, and it was enjoyed by all.

Freedoms Foundation Award

On May 13, 1953, at a special program held in the auditorium of Southern High School, Dr. Kenneth Wells, President of the Freedoms Foundation, announced that the Baltimore Public Schools received a larger number of awards for the past year than any other school system in the nation. Five of our schools were especially honored for specific projects which they had carried on. Southern High School was given its third consecutive award for various aspects of the school program. Albert Kaline and Mr. Andrew Bohle accepted Southern's award on behalf of the students and faculty.

President Kenneth Wells of the Freedoms Foundation presented the awards.

The Honorable Thomas D'Alesandro, Mayor of the City of Baltimore, opened our television program.

Albert Kaline accepted the award for Southern High School.

Dr. John Fischer was presented an award for Baltimore City Department of Education.

We closed the program appropriately with the pledge to the flag and our National Anthem.

The Honorable Theodore R. McKeldin participated in our day of glory.

Varsity Football

Our 1952 football season was one full of happiness and sadness. The bulldogs showed sportsmanship, spirit, and fight although the odds against them were terrific. Injuries made our squad small but made the bulldogs fight much harder. Though we won only one game, we shall never forget the players who tried to the best of their ability to bring fame and glory to Southern and its students.

Graduates

JUNE CLASS

DURING our first years at Southern, we took our school life pretty much for granted. We only knew that we had to get up early, study for tests, and struggle through what seemed like never ending days of lessons. Then, quite suddenly, in our senior year we began to think of leaving and we got prematurely homesick. We found ourselves lingering after school and walking through the halls a little slower observing things which had gone unnoticed before. Yes, our school, teachers, advisors, and friends had become very close to us and although we'll miss them, we'll never forget them.

We bid fond farewell to Southern in song!

They were four good years

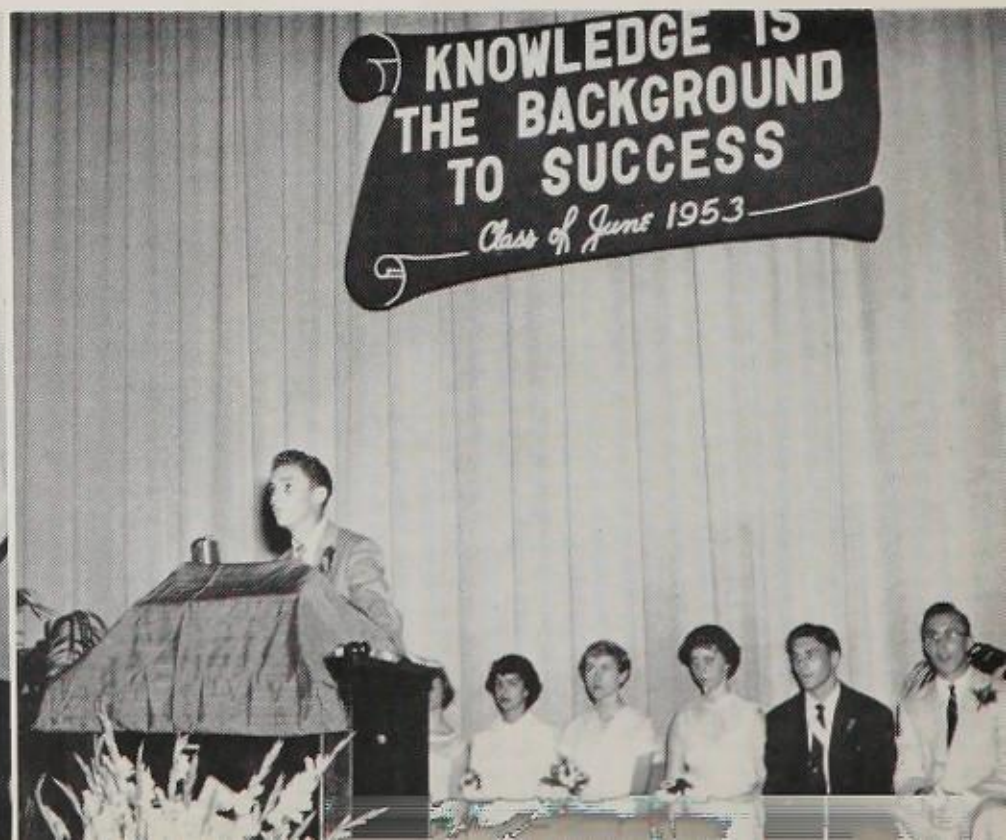
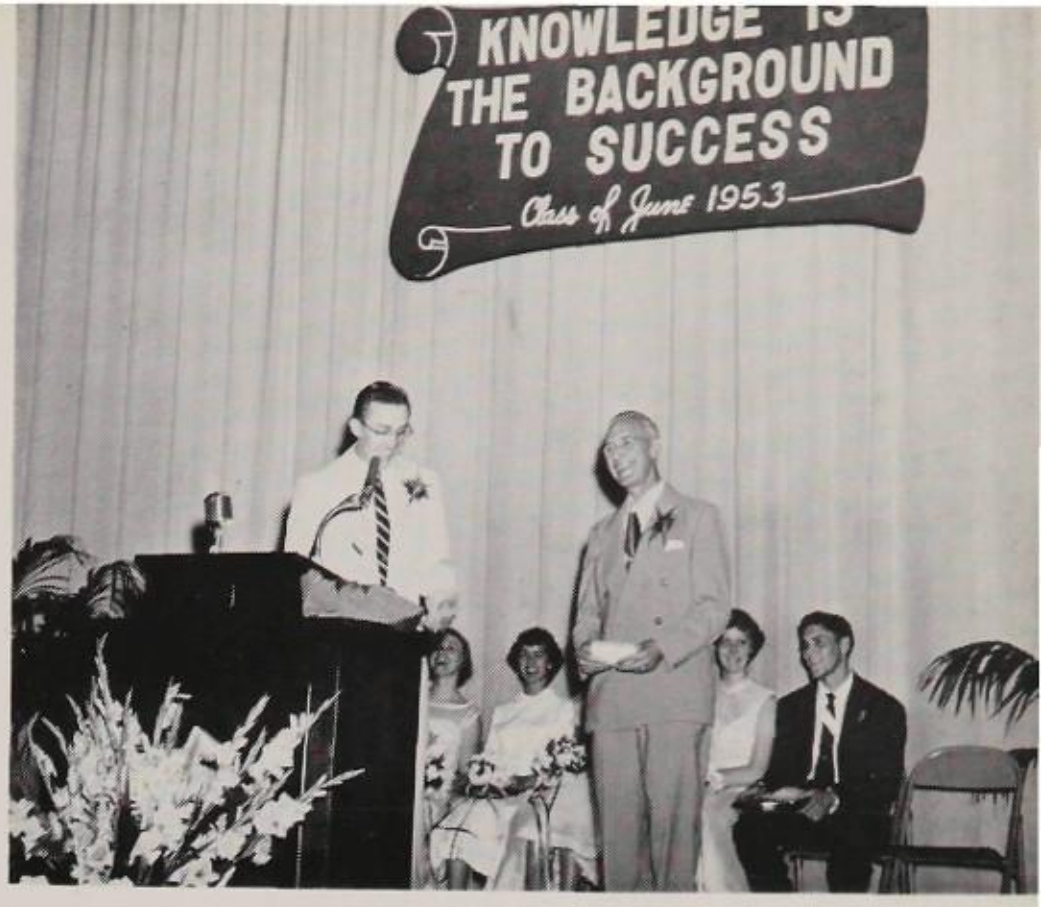
We were surrounded by those who were dear to us, our principal, advisors, and teachers.

We had lunch in the cafeteria which held so many dear memories for us.

Robert Smith, president of the Student's Association, offered his farewell speech.





Richard Walega presented the Class gift to Mr. Schwatka.

We gathered in the hall waiting for the signal from the band to start our march down the aisle.

Our years at

Southern High School

It was almost time!

We marched proudly but sorrowfully down the aisle.

The portrait and frame of Governor McKeldin was presented by Mr. Ronald Anderson and the yearbook staff.

We marched in triumphantly.

Our speakers were at their best.

The special awards were many.

June

The laughter, worry, clubs, exams

At long last . . .

. . . We reached our goal

Graduation

Marching forward

The parties, play, games and friends

Our guests enjoyed the menu.

We used our best table manners.

As we waited for the music.

Senior Banquet

These we will long remember after graduation day

We were never too busy for pictures.

Like Cinderella at the ball.

Resting between dances.

and Prom

We mutually pledge
to each other our lives,
our fortunes, and our sacred honor.

The ring dance . . .

Very refreshing

. . . and now our Prom Favors
